

ART NEWSLETTER

Week of April 15th

This Week:

What We Did:

Each class was assigned a portion of a collaborative landscape diptych.

- Infants = Finger/bag painted the sky.
- Ones/Sunflowers = Used texture brushes to paint hills/grass.
- Sweet Peas = Salad spinner flowers
- Poppies = Stamp flowers
- Little Sprouts = Newspaper texture paint trees
- Apple Blossoms: Water dropper flowers
- Sunshines: Water dropper butterflies (to be displayed in eating gardens)

Objective:

- Art is Texture
- Art is form

Create a collaborative diptych/permanent piece

Terms

- Diptych = 2 pieces of art that go together to make 1

Why?

- Collaborations allow us to value each other's choices and strengths.
- Foster community and cooperation.
- Utilize fine motor skills (stamping, painting, dropping)
- Seeing our artwork displayed builds confidence.

Check out the collaborative collage in the lobby!
